BELONG

As a child, what was your greatest fear? Can you think of a “monster under my bed” threat that continually plagued you?

One of our greatest needs in life is to feel safe and secure. How does Romans 8:37-39 offer us assurance and security in our faith?

GROW

Read Romans 8:30-39. How many questions are in the Romans 8:30-39 passage? What is the connecting theme of the questions?

How does knowing that “no one or no thing can separate us from the love of God” help you understand Jesus better?

Take a moment to glance over the entire chapter of Romans 8. How do verses 8:31-39 fit into the context of the whole chapter? Paul writes in 8:31, “What shall we say in response to these things.” What is he referring to here?

Going Deeper: Some would argue that the Apostle Paul is writing these things from personal experience. How does 2 Corinthians 11:16-33 provide insight into this?

How is this passage related to the resurrection and ascension of Jesus? How can this passage speak into our current crisis situation? How does it offer comfort to us as we navigate many potential threats and fears?
