

Who I Am in Christ

When we receive the Gospel, we receive a new identity. All of these verses speak to the new identity you gain through faith in Jesus. By reminding ourselves of our new identity, we can express thankfulness to God for making us new, and we can examine our lives to discover new ways to live out our new identities. Moreover, we can use these verses to encourage our brothers and sisters in Christ when they feel insecure in their faith. These don't describe our achievements, but what God has called us to by his grace. If they don't seem true of us now, that is just an opportunity to submit and trust more of ourselves to God. We can put full hope in that what these verses speak of us is what God will make happen if we hold onto faith in Jesus.

How to use this list as a Devotional:

1. Pray. Ask for help to understand.
2. Read a passage.
3. Summarize the passage in your own words.
4. Take Action: Is there a specific way you can live more consistently with the identity you claim?
5. Pray. Thank God for what you learned, asking him to help you live it out.

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.
