COME TOGETHER | We Make Disciples Together

Matthew 28:18-20

Tell about a time when someone has done a good job of training you to do a job or task.

Read Matthew 28:18-20. What does it mean for Jesus to have been given “all authority in heaven and on earth” in verse 18? How is this foundational for the command that follows?

Notice how this first verse fits with the last sentence of verse 20. How do these truths encourage us as followers of Christ?

Going Deeper: Look at Matthew 1:23 and notice the meaning of the name, “Immanuel,” that is to be given to Mary’s child. How does Jesus’ final words in this Gospel account fulfill this promise from before His birth?

Focusing on the command in verses 19-20, how does Jesus define for us what it means to “make disciples?” Why is baptism important in the context of this passage?

How does “teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you” place an importance on learning and applying Scripture? What has this looked like in your life? ...As a disciple? ...As a disciple maker? What is your greatest need at this point in your life—to be disciplined by someone, to disciple another person, or both?

Fellowship Bible Church’s mission statement is based on this passage from Matthew 28: “To produce and release spiritual leaders who know and express the authentic Christ to northwest Arkansas and the world.” How do you see the mission statement matching with the passage? In what ways does this study challenge you to live out this mission statement?
