

Epiphany: Jesus is Transfigured

Live as ONE

Who is someone who amazed you with their faith? Tell us about them.

Live by the WORD

Read Luke 9:28-36.

If helpful, use the devotional thoughts and prayer on pages 42 and 43 (Week 10) of the Clarity book to help guide your thoughts.

What eras of Jewish history were represented in Moses and Elijah? What was the topic of their discussion with Jesus? Why was this discussion significant for these men at this time? What was the relevance for Peter, James, and John as they witnessed the event and overheard the conversation?

Why do you think God chose to make Himself heard audibly here? How does this compare to the scene at Jesus' baptism (Luke 3:22)? What is affirmed for Peter, James, John, and us in this event?

How do you think this mountain-top experience affected the group, Jesus included, once they came down from the mountain?

Live as SENT

What keeps you spiritually encouraged and motivated in your everyday life, in between the mountain-top experiences?

Have you seen evidence of Jesus working in someone's life recently? Find a way to encourage them this week. Consider initiating an "I see in you..." conversation with them.
