

What is one piece of advice to you typically hear at farewell occasions, such as graduations or going-away parties?

Read Joshua 23:3. Joshua is about to pass away and he knows it. He has gathered all of Israel's leaders, judges, and officials to give them one last sermon on life.

In your life, in what way have you seen the Lord "fight for you"? In what way would you like to Lord to "fight for you" right now?

Read Joshua 23:6-13. How do you believe you would have responded to Joshua's message for the people of Israel? Looking back on your life, what has been the result when you obeyed God? Disobeyed? Who is someone or where is a place that you must stay away from for your own good?

Read Joshua 24:14-15. What does the phrase "serve the Lord" mean to you?

Read Joshua 24:16-24. What might be some foreign "gods" (as mentioned in verse 23) that you are tempted to serve (such as money, power, affection, addiction, leisure, security, other)? How do these temptations pop up in your life? How do you avoid them?

In what ways has God shown His faithfulness to you or your family?

Do you have a regular time of devotion time with God to declare your commitment to Him personally? What about as a couple or family?

How has this study of the book of Joshua challenged you to grow spiritually? What is the biggest take-away for you personally from this series?

Community Kids' Closet

Community Kids' Closet (CKC) helps provide new clothes and shoes to the underprivileged school children of Northwest Arkansas.

CKC works with school staff to identify specific clothing needs for specific school children. This allows us to directly impact the child's life by providing these basic necessities and boosting their self-esteem with the gift of new clothes.

This year we will be offering gift envelopes in the Foyer for you to give financially to CKC so teachers can buy gift cards and provide clothing and shoes for kids. Watch for the envelopes coming soon.
