Read John 21:1-14. What strikes you as interesting about this segment of the passage? Why?

Read Luke 5:4-11. What similarities do you see in these passages? How might the earlier experience recorded in Luke's Gospel have influenced John's recognition of Jesus and Peter's reaction in today's passage?

Read John 21:15-25.

Based on His response to Peter's actions, what emotions do you suppose Peter might have felt after denying Jesus three times before the Crucifixion? Why do you think Jesus asked Peter "Do you love me?" three times? What does this passage teach you about Jesus and His character?

Can you relate in some way to having let Jesus down as a Christian because of something you have done? What temptations does someone face when this happens?

What is most needed for restoration? If Jesus was willing to restore Peter after a triple-denial, what comfort does that provide us when we sin against Him? When Peter said he loved Jesus, why did Jesus say "Feed my sheep"? What could this look like in your life?

To learn more about Jesus' appearances and ascension, look up Acts 1:3-11.

How has this passage helped you see Jesus more clearly?
