

Ben Cashion, MS - A former licensed counselor, Ben has worked with families in Northwest Arkansas for almost 10 years. He is passionate about the hard work of creating healthy relationships in families. Ben has a wealth of experience working directly with parents of teenagers from his time in private practice at Oaks Counseling. Currently, he is the Director of Content and Training at The Center for Collaborative Care. Ben, his wife, and three children live in Fayetteville where they attend and love Fellowship.