Bible Story

A Wife for Isaac: The Read With Me Bible -- Pages 50-55

Reference: Genesis 24 & 25

Abraham said to his servant, "Go to my country and to my relatives. Get a wife for my son Isaac." The servant took ten of his master's camels and left. He made his way to the town of Nahor. He stopped near the well outside the town. He made the camels get down on their knees. It was almost evening. It was the time when women go out to get water. Then the servant prayed, "Lord, give me success today. I will speak to a young woman. I'll say, 'Please lower your jar so I can have a drink.' Suppose she says, 'Have a drink of water. I'll get some for your camels too.' Then let her be the one you have chosen for Isaac." Before he finished praying, Rebekah came out. She had a jar on her shoulder. She was very beautiful. The servant hurried to meet her. He said, "Please give me a little water from your jar." After she had given him a drink, she said, "I'll get water for your camels too." The camels finished drinking. Then the man took out a gold nose ring. He also took out two gold bracelets. He gave them to Rebekah. Rebekah had a brother named Laban. He hurried out to meet the man. Laban said, "The Lord has done this." He asked Rebekah, "Will you go with this man?" "Yes," she said. So the servant took Rebekah. She became Isaac's wife, and he loved her.

Memory Verse:

Qs & Prayer

1. What can we thank God for when we pray?
2. When do we need to ask God's help?

Dear God,

Thank you for (repeat things your child mentioned). We need Your help when (repeat times your child mentioned). We love You

In Jesus name,
Amen
