

Church | Be the Church | Acts 2:42-47

Matt Newman

Mosaic Friends & Family,

August is our re-launch time for Disciple-Making Communities (DMC). In this unprecedented time, we want to continually resource you and your DMC with identity-shaping questions that help you gain momentum moving into the fall. At the end of each online service, we will put two key questions on the screen. Whether you use that time immediately following the virtual service as a family or DMC to connect, or find another strategic time throughout the week, we hope those questions will act simply as an aid for vulnerability, depth, and an ultimate end goal: discipleship. Each week, this discussion guide will focus on those same two questions.

What are you fully devoted to in your life?
(Consider where you put your time/treasure/talent.)

Looking at the early church’s example in Acts 2, how can you, your family, or your DMC (disciple-making community) take steps toward deepening your devotion?

Our prayer for you, articulated better by Paul himself:

For not only has the word of the Lord sounded forth from you in Macedonia and Achaia, but your faith in God has gone forth everywhere, so that we need not say anything. ⁹ For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God.

—1 Thessalonians 1:8-9 ESV
